

THE ARTOIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Monday 9th – Sunday 15th June 2008

Experience the start of the grass court season, with fantastic hospitality at the prestige location of the Queen's Club. In 2007, a dramatic final saw Andy Roddick save a match point against Frenchman Nicholas Mahut before going on to claim his fourth Artois Championship title in five years. Book now to see the start of an action packed summer with some of the world's best male players!

Situated in the heart of west London, The Queen's Club not only offers an ideal location, prestige and a relaxed and youthful ambience but also allows guests to experience an oasis of fine dining and hospitality.
